

Call for papers

ANNIVERSARIES, CELEBRATIONS AND COMMEMORATIONS IN THE ANCIENT WORLD, AND THEIR RECEPTION

XX UNISA Classics Colloquium

We are pleased to announce the first call for papers for the annual Unisa Classics Colloquium, to be held in Pretoria from 15 to 18 August 2019.

The conference aims to explore issues marking celebrations, commemorations and anniversaries of all kinds around the ancient world (up to the 7th century CE, but including its reception in later periods). Topics enlarging on the literary, social and political significance of such events in the building of not only civic identities but also individual legacies, as well as the appropriation of these occasions in later contexts, will be welcomed.

Paper proposals (approximately 300 words) are invited for papers of 30 minutes debating current issues and problems on any aspect of the above theme.

Abstracts and titles should include your name and university affiliation, and should be submitted to either:

- Liana Lamprecht at lamprjc@unisa.ac.za
- Martine De Marre at dmarrmea@gmail.com

Deadline for abstracts: 30 April 2019

Details of the conference venue, accommodation and other important information will be made available on the conference website, which we hope to have up-and-running soon.

We look forward to hearing from you, and please do not hesitate to contact us at the addresses provided above if you have any queries.
